

NITW - DISTINGUISHED ALUMNI AWARDS – 2017

Nominations are invited

Last Date for submission of Nominations: 8th September 2017

1.0 Introduction

NIT Warangal introduced the Distinguished Alumnus Award program to honour outstanding former students and to celebrate their achievements. The purpose of the Distinguished Alumni Award is to recognize the institute's alumni, who have made significant contributions to the society. The Distinguished Alumnus Award will be an exceptional honour to its recipients. These awards will be given for outstanding achievement and there will be no compromise in diminishing the significance of the awards. The Distinguished Alumni Awards will be presented on Institute Alumni Day i.e. on 10th October 2017. Each award includes a citation and a certificate.

The following award categories and criteria are proposed.

2.0 Award Categories

Recipients will be identified in the following three distinct spheres among two age groups, i.e. 1. Senior Alumni (Age: above 40 years) and 2. Young Alumni (Age: less than or equal to 40 years)

Details of these awards are provided below.

2.1 Category A: For Professional Achievement

The Distinguished Alumni Professional Achievement Award recognizes an alumnus/alumna whose accomplishments and contributions have had the broadest impact and positive effect on mankind. Alumni should have exceptional accomplishment in his chosen professional field. Recipients of this award are celebrated for going beyond their successful vocation and bringing benefit to the universal community and for scientific and technological advancement. This Award is intended to honour alumni whose accomplishments and contributions are of national and/or international significance, and/or have had a seminal or transformative impact on their field of endeavour.

2.2 Category B: For Service to Society

The Distinguished Alumni Award for Public Service is presented annually to an alumnus/alumna with superior service in the public sector or a sustained pattern of voluntary service to the community, or service to the arts, that has positively represented the Institute and fellow citizens. He/she should have demonstrated either outstanding success in a career in the public service or extraordinary contributions in the charitable, non-profit, or civic arena. Such achievement may include:

- Consistent long-term achievement in a career in the public service
- Use of influence and effectiveness in the business world to support a pursuit in public service

Public Service can include, but not limited to public administration, leadership, membership or support of civic organizations, charitable organizations, religious organizations, or other community related volunteer or financial support.

2.3 Category C: For Service and Support to NIT Warangal

The Distinguished Alumni Award for Volunteer Service is presented annually to an alumnus/alumna of NIT Warangal based upon a significant pattern of volunteer service to the NITW that has positively represented the NIT Warangal and its mission. Recipients have been actively engaged in voluntary work on behalf of NIT Warangal. He should have carried out exceptional service in support of the advancement and continued excellence of NIT Warangal and the NIT Warangal Alumni Association. Long-term loyalty and dedication are key ingredients of these very special volunteers.

Voluntary Service to the Institute can include, but not limited to involvement with Institute or department committees, Alumni Association support, participation and membership, financial contributions, participation in Institute programs, teaching at the Institute, other voluntary membership, leadership or service.

Normally an alumnus/alumna who has received the Professional Achievement Award / Public Service Award shall not be considered for Volunteer Service Award within a period of 5 years.
