

Note to UG and PG graduates of 2020 regarding Caution Deposit

The UG and PG graduates who completed their degree in 2020 are eligible for refund of the caution deposit. The amount is Rs.4000, normally. In case of some students, their dues like library books etc. were adjusted against this amount during 2020 after taking their consent to adjust the dues against their caution deposit. In such cases, the actual amount left will be refunded.

The following appeal may be considered by the graduates. They can either donate this amount with generously to the institute or apply for refund.

Note: Those who applied earlier are also required to apply using the below form.

Appeal

A college contributes a lot towards betterment of its graduates as any parent does. This is one small way of paying back the Institute. As a token of gratitude towards your alma mater, please consider contributing the caution deposit amount deposited by you at the time of admission towards betterment of the college. If you agree, the amount will be transferred to Endowment fund which will be used for betterment of facilities for the students and institute at large. Please consider the appeal. Choice can be exercised using the online form:

Online Application: <https://forms.qle/EvqDMiev754FLTqFA>

Last date to fill the form is 25th May 2021. Applications / requests / emails/ calls received after the due date will not be entertained.

In case of queries related to this issue, the students can approach the concerned through email addresses available under the "Academics>Academic Services" section of institute website. Please note that the response will take time as the offices are overloaded/closed/partially working due to online mode of operation and pandemic. Please understand and co-operate. Please do not call any official for this.
