

Background

Writing is the principal means for communicating scientific work. Research and publication complement teaching and training. Writing a scientific research paper could be an option for undertaking short period research investigation. Ph.D. research scholars are required to publish minimum of 2 research papers in refereed journals before the submission of the thesis. Some of the UG/PG students are also interested in publishing papers to get financial assistance for doing masters/Ph.D. in foreign countries. A substantive research effort is involved in writing a scientific research paper by a large number of researchers and by industry experts. However, many researchers do not know how to write a scientific research paper, therefore, a large number of papers are being rejected by the peer reviewed quality journals.

While writing a scientific research paper is an art as well as a complicated knowledge based skill, presenting it effectively is an equally important skill. Very few among the academia comprehend the finer nuances involved in publishing a research paper in high quality refereed journals. This workshop will offer valuable inputs and tips in these aspects and instill confidence among scholars.

The workshop is open to UG / PG students/ Research Scholars, younger faculty of Academic Institutions, and Professionals from Industry.
